$$ "Give a little. $$ Get a lot!"

Community Thread is implementing a new policy~ We are requesting participants give "a buck for the house" when at the Senior Center for on-going social/recreational programs. It's a little bit toward the cost of maintaining a comfortable, clean and safe space for you to come and play. Thank you for your co-operation!

Volunteer Opportunities in Your Community

Lakeview Hospital- Stillwater.

A number of volunteer opportunities are available that could use your help! Volunteers assist customers by ringing up purchases in the gift shop, help patients and visitors find their way and get answers to their questions, or as a musician playing relaxing music for hospital patients and visitors on Lakeview's piano. Or volunteer in surgery waiting where you will assist and escort family members who are waiting for someone in surgery and/or filling in for the surgery receptionist for a short period each shift. Contact Kim Klisch, 651.430.8522, kklisch@lakeview.org for more information.

Customer Service – St. Paul Park

Do you enjoy people? Stone Soup Thrift Shop is looking for friendly people to help customers purchase items at their store. Choose a time in the morning or afternoon Monday through Saturday to volunteer. For more information contact Becky Monson at 651-458-9786 or e-mail stonesoupthriftshop@yahoo.com.

Chapel Assistant – Woodbury

Many studies and surveys have shown that religious affiliations have beneficial effects to human health. Being a part of a loving, caring community is an important ingredient in quality of life and good health maintenance. Volunteer to assist the residents of the Woodbury Health Care Center to their chapel services and find the pages in their hymnals. Volunteers must have the strength to push residents in chairs and on ramps. Training is provided. Service times are 8:45 - 10:15 a.m. Wednesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays, and Sundays. For more information contact Mary Bjerke at 651-287-6545 or e-mail mbjerke@woodburyseniorliving.com.

Buddy – Stillwater

Share your smile and companionship with persons living with HIV/AIDS. Help maintain the quality of life of the residents of Hope House of St. Croix Valley by coming to the house to do puzzles, play board games, watch a movie, play piano, help with meal preparation, or just hang out. Time commitment is for two hours with the volunteer choosing afternoon or evening and the time that works with their schedule. For more information contact Kathleen Hill at 651-351-0361 or e-mail hopehousecd@aol.com.
